Biography

My practice covers international arbitration and litigation with a particular focus on insurance and reinsurance disputes as well as cross-border disputes management and resolution in the Asia Pacific and South East Asian region.

On the insurance front, I represent insurers and policyholders in the full spectrum of non-marine insurance and reinsurance-related matters. I specialize in large scale property, energy and construction losses and advise clients on contentious and non-contentious policy-related issues that include policy interpretation, coverage and quantum and provides representation in settlement negotiations, mediations, arbitrations and litigation.

I have established a strong network with leading local law firms in the Asia Pacific and South East Asian region and am regularly instructed by local counsel to advise and represent clients in international arbitration proceedings arising out of shareholder, joint venture, manufacturing and distribution and construction and engineering related disputes and am fluent in the institutional rules of major arbitral institutions including SIAC, HKIAC, ICC, ACICA, LCIA and UNCITRAL.

In addition, I also represent clients in a wide range of commercial litigation disputes before the Singapore Courts.
